Description of Program Service One

TACA held more than 100 education and support group meetings including three new parent seminars helping almost 150 families as they began their autism journey. Also, TACA provided more than 75 mentor introductions for new families to obtain support and guidance from an experienced TACA family. TACA held two social skill groups, each for 10 high functioning or Asperger's teens. Finally, TACA held three marriage and family counseling group meetings, each held over an 8-week period.

Description of Program Service Four

Through the Families in Crisis Fund, TACA provided financial assistance to 20 families in crisis to help with emergency needs. Twenty-nine additional families were provided with information to access existing programs outside of TACA to help solve their crisis. TACA also adopted 20 families over the holidays. TACA provided 10 medical treatment scholarships to children affected by autism, who otherwise would have been unable to afford treatment through our California Medical Fund. Finally, TACA volunteers coordinated more than 300 phone calls and 3500 emails per month from families across the country looking for support.
